President's Letter

This was written Jan 11th after our board meeting. In my infinite wisdom I screwed up the e-mailing of it to Sue Swan for input to the newsletter. I am home now to snow and a late newsletter! I am so sorry!!!! I apologize to all.

Tomorrow I fly to Washington, D.C. for a week, visiting with friends and family, all the people I missed seeing when I got sick after the EGA Richmond National Seminar. Then the Cornell University's winter alumni class officers' meeting will be held the following weekend in Philadelphia. If you know Ithaca, NY, in winter you will not question why the meeting is held elsewhere! I am part of the planning group for our class' 50th reunion next June. (When I'm so young, how can this be?)

The chapter board meeting tonight was lots of fun. Really! We spent most of the time discussing what teachers we want to invite to teach us. We talked about having two teachers a year, one in the fall, and one in the winter. We have heard from Tony Minieri and he will come to us February 23rd and 24th, take a Monday off to rest and be a tourist, and teach a second class on Tuesday, February 26th and Wednesday, February 27th. THAT IS FEBRUARY 2008!

Sue Beveridge, our Workshop chairman, is working on finding a National teacher for next October, (The ANG Nat'l Seminar is August 23 – September 1. EGA follows directly after in Chicago, September 2-7). Sue is also making inquiries to teachers for the fall of 2008, and all of 2009. Yes, these teachers are booked two years out! I hope everyone takes advantage of our ability to have wonderful teachers for our chapter thanks to the hard work of Barb Richardson, the stellar Seminar Committee members, and all the volunteers that made this possible.

Angels are in their final stages. In January, the apron/dress ideas will be presented by Donna Lawrence, day meeting, and a mystery person at the night meeting. March will be the wrap up with finishing ideas from Susan Thompson. There will be a prize and pictures to send to Joan Thomason, (the original designer) at the May joint meeting. So keep working!

I hope to see you all January 24th or 25th.

Judy Burgess

Happy New Year Everyone! I need someone to lead the January Night Meeting with the angel. If anyone is available please email me at peggy@drlawton.com or call me at 298-3342. Remember the drawing in April for those that have completed their angels.
