Don't forget - Combined Joint Meeting and Potluck on Saturday November 18th at Streams of the Desert Lutheran Church

I feel wonderful! The contrast from last week when I was suffering with a fever and chest cold is amazing! I'm ready to slay dragons (or at least start an exercise program). Last week I was so out of it neither my body nor my brain functioned. Glad that is in the past!

Myldred Richardson presented a fabulous program on hair complete with cultural and art history, my spies on the board tell me. So sorry I missed it. I am behind on stitching the wings and hair for my fat angel. That is next up, after I finish three small projects that are at the 90% completion stage. I was just too sick to be able to do even that little bit. But now I am charging onward. We have door prizes for the completed angels in May. We also plan to send pictures of our angels to designer, Joan Thomasson, who is the inspiration for our multi-meeting chapter project. She was pleased to hear about our plans.

I'm looking forward to seeing everyone next week, Saturday, Nov 18th at 10 a.m. stitch in, 11:30 pot luck lunch (everybody bring your favorite dishes), 12:30 the joint meeting will start. We have great opportunity baskets courtesy of Margaret Von Kuegelgen. The meeting will include the important vote on the revised By-laws, thanks to Sue Strause. Our program will be Barbara Mayo Grass talking about judging. Bring your questions. She wants it to be a dialogue session. Should be very enlightening!!!

See you all at Streams of the Desert Lutheran Church on Pima, on Saturday!
