President's Message

Hi, all!

Sitting in my living room listening to the chimes sounding furious due to wind! Hopefully the rain comes soon - we need it!

Recovering slowly and carefully from the cracks in my pelvis. I was "lucky" to not have surgery. At least this condition has given me more time to stitch those two simultaneous projects - needlework and crocheting. Our next meeting on March 27th is the combined luncheon with the EGA chapter at Ventana Canyon Lodge, 6200 N.Club Lane. See you there!

We will meet again in April at Grace St.Paul's Episcopal Church for stitching, companionship and fun.

Peace and Justice,
Joyce

April is one of the months you can bring your stash to sell. 10% goes to the guild.

See you at the luncheon!!!

I am looking for a class for the chapter. If anyone has any ideas for a teacher they would like to see us get, please let me know asap, as it takes time to set these up.

Thanks,

I'm really looking forward to the EGA/ANG luncheon!
There will be 6 opportunity baskets from EGA and 6 from ANG. I've been chatting with the EGA person in charge of baskets and it sounds like a lot of really great baskets!

Come and enjoy.

Hospitality

Becky Lynn

Hello Fellow Stitchers,

I am posting this message to you to announce changes in our hospitality/refreshment endeavors at the guild meetings. It was discussed at the last board meeting, voted upon and passed that there will be no more refreshments provided by volunteering members, and subsequently, there will be no need to provide napkins, plates, utensils etc. This was a difficult proposal for me, as your hospitality chairperson, to present to the board.

There has been a significant decrease in attendance at our monthly meetings and it was becoming more and more difficult to get anyone to volunteer at any of the meetings.

Please bring your own snack/lunch and beverage to meetings in the future. John, caretaker of the hall, has made pitchers of lemonade and iced tea at the last two meetings, but there is no guarantee that that will be the case in the future.

You are more than welcome to bring something to share with the group, there just won't be a sign-up sheet until further notice.

Please note that there will also not be any plates, napkins etc. brought back and forth. I am sorry this has come to pass and hopefully it will change in the future.

Thank you,
Becky Lynn
